Door Prizes

- Mini peppermint candy bars from Vosges Haut-Chocolat. <http://www.vosgeschocolate.com/>
- Two VIP tickets to the July 28th taping of Wait Wait... Don't Tell Me! from Chicago Public Media-WBEZ. <http://www.wbez.org/>
Please note: winner must notify WBEZ of their intention to attend the show by June 23rd and the date (7/28) cannot be altered. Contact Nia Tavoularis, Director, Major Gifts, niat@wbez.org, 312.948.4686.
- A one-year gift subscription to The Writer: <http://www.writermag.com/>
- A copy of The Puglian Cookbook from Chicago author and Italian cooking instructor Viktorija Todorovska. Viktorija's first cookbook, The Puglian Cookbook: Bringing the Flavors of Puglia Home, was published in April 2011. Viktorija's stories and recipes paint a vivid picture of the Puglia region and its culinary traditions. The recipes are simple and easy to prepare, making it possible even for beginner cooks to create delicious meals and unforgettable dining experiences.
- A $25 gift certificate and Girls Night Out Party from the Hubba-Hubba boutique in Lakeview: <http://hubbahubbachicago.com>

Give. Gain. Grow.

Tonight we celebrate another year of professional growth, personal fulfillment, rich programs, and abundant networking. We thank all those who contributed their time and talent, support and service.

Together we made it a very good year!

Our Mission Statement

Chicago Women in Publishing (CWIP) is a nonprofit volunteer organization formed in 1972 for professionals in the publishing industry and allied fields. Our purpose is to explore and improve the status of publishing professionals, to assist members in greater professional achievement, and to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas.

CWIP offers programs, services, and networking opportunities to advance publishing careers. Membership is open to women and men who support CWIP's goals. Our aim is to be Chicago's most respected source of publishing education, information, outreach, leadership, and career opportunities.
